District Cross Country

A number of our students participated in the Opotiki District Cross Country on Friday. Students represented Woodlands School with pride and a positive attitude. Seven students have made the top ten, and have qualified for the Eastern Bay of Plenty Cross Country to be held at Woodlands School on Tuesday the 20 June.

The students who made the top ten were:

8 Year Girls -	Katie Harrison (3 rd )
	Samantha Kurei (10 th )
10 Year Boys -	Tyler Young (4 th )
11 Year Girls -	Yasmin Chandler (8 th )
12 Year Girls -	Jocelyn Franklyn (3 rd )
	Brianna Wilson (4 th )
	Toni-Lee Kauta (8 th )

PB4L

It has been great to see our students being supportive of each other, using kind words and manners at both the cross country and district cross country. We had many positive comments on our learner's behaviour at these events.

This week our focus is on Timeliness and our students will be learning the importance of being in class on time and ready to learn.

The Amazing Akatarere Awards for Week 6 went to:

Daniel Fetu Molia – Caring for Ourselves

Maitland Bezer – Caring for Ourselves

Tamia Peri – Caring for Ourselves

Niki Black – Caring for Ourselves
